Description:

Review "Beautiful science fiction . . . The story of an extraterrestrial visitor from another planet is designed mainly to say something about life on this one."

--The New York Times

"An utterly realistic novel about an alien human on Earth . . . Realistic enough to become a metaphor for something inside us all, some existential loneliness."

--NORMAN SPINRAD

"Those who know The Man Who Fell to Earth only from the film version are missing something. This is one of the finest science fiction novels of its period."

--J.R. DUNN

Author of Full Tide of Night

"Tevis writes . . . with power and poetry and tension."

--The Washington Post Book World

"Terrific . . . The Man Who Fell to Earth can be seen as the story of a very hip, space-age Passion-- about a savior who comes to Earth not to save us but his own people, and who is, in effect, crucified dead and buried."

--VINCENT CANBY --This text refers to an alternate edition.

From the Inside Flap T.J. Newton is an extraterrestrial who goes to Earth on a desperate mission of mercy. But instead of aid, Newton discovers loneliness and despair that ultimately ends in tragedy. --This text refers to an alternate edition.
